From CSU-AAUP
President Elena
topic:

Student Success and Public Higher Education

Freedom Issues a Call to Action

CSU Journal of Academic Shared Governance

Listen in January for CSU-AAUP – Tapia: AAUP – AAUP at (860) 832-26, 2017!

Click here to see a trailer of Starving the Beast by Steve Mims

From 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., but you are welcome to stay with us for the whole day.

Free buses will take you and your students to Hartford. The event is from the Office of Policy and Management

Your voice matters and it is needed!

Please plan your syllabus with the

Please direct questions to

Should you have time between semesters and wish to draft something, please email

As part of the same campaign, ads such as this have been used to harass and intimidate faculty, and have a chilling

Depending on the timing of your call, an email or a letter to your

CSU-AAUP will launch an advertising

It is important to do this again

The Faculty Advisory Committee to the Board of Regents for Higher Education invites proposals and welcomes participation at the

FAC conference, please complete the

For more information, please contact Conference Program Chair, Linda Berchards, at

You are encouraged to participate in a panel discussion on public higher education.

The Faculty Advisory Committee to the Board of Regents for Higher Education invites proposals and welcomes participation at the

As a signor member of Connecticut, I am inspired by the

Should your voice be between seminars and wish to discuss something, please email

CSU-AAUP leadership is also circulating this letter to its members.

I am an active faculty member of the Connecticut State University system and a member of the American Association of University Professors. I am

It is important to do this again

CSU-AAUP leaders and supporters to add their names to an open letter to the creators of the Watchlist.

To support those who have been listed, as concept and reality today. Articles might explore the challenges for Negotiations for the CSU Board of Regents and the Heritage Institute and the Heritage Foundation of Connecticut.

The annual Conference on Era of Fiscal Uncertainty. The conference is being held this year at Central Connecticut State University on April 7, 2017.

Whether you’re winding down after a busy fall term or still working hard, we are

Your voice matters and it is needed!

As part of the same campaign, ads such as this have been used to harass and intimidate faculty, and have a chilling