In a statement, Stefan Keller, program manager at CT Students For A Dream said: "In an era of increased enforcement of immigration laws and threats to deport undocumented students, our students are facing a myriad of challenges. It is critical that our lawmakers stand up for CT's youth and make sure that they are protected. It is crucial that we work together to fight against these attacks and to ensure that our students are able to continue their education and succeed."