If there are changes to President Ojakian’s consolidation plan, the Council will need to be supportive of any changes that might take place in order for the process to continue. If the exploratory discussions between SEBAC and the State suggest a fair agreement comes to you, the membership, for a tentative agreement since 2015, it is likely that we will be asking the membership to vote to ratify our contract and a collective bargaining contract.

If you want to know more about these things, you should watch the video below. The video has had 281 views (out of our over 2000 members). A link to the video can be found in the “Contact CSU Union News Blog” section.

On April 13, 2017, I gave a video taped update on the status of our CSU AAUP/BOR contract. If you want to watch the video, you can click here. The video is also available on our AAUP/AAUP Facebook page.

If the exploratory discussions result in a fair agreement, the SEBAC leaders will brief the Council for its recommendation. For the process to continue beyond this summer, we will again extend our contract for another year. As this extension agreement is posted on our website, please click here to read it.

President’s Corner By CSU/AAUP President Elena Tapia

If there are changes to President Ojakian’s consolidation plan, the Council will need to be supportive of any changes that might take place in order for the process to continue. If the exploratory discussions between SEBAC and the State suggest a fair agreement comes to you, the membership, for a tentative agreement since 2015, it is likely that we will be asking the membership to vote to ratify our contract and a collective bargaining contract.

If you want to know more about these things, you should watch the video below. The video has had 281 views (out of our over 2000 members). A link to the video can be found in the “Contact CSU Union News Blog” section.

On April 13, 2017, I gave a video taped update on the status of our CSU AAUP/BOR contract. If you want to watch the video, you can click here. The video is also available on our AAUP/AAUP Facebook page.

If the exploratory discussions result in a fair agreement, the SEBAC leaders will brief the Council for its recommendation. For the process to continue beyond this summer, we will again extend our contract for another year. As this extension agreement is posted on our website, please click here to read it.

President’s Corner By CSU/AAUP President Elena Tapia

If there are changes to President Ojakian’s consolidation plan, the Council will need to be supportive of any changes that might take place in order for the process to continue. If the exploratory discussions between SEBAC and the State suggest a fair agreement comes to you, the membership, for a tentative agreement since 2015, it is likely that we will be asking the membership to vote to ratify our contract and a collective bargaining contract.

If you want to know more about these things, you should watch the video below. The video has had 281 views (out of our over 2000 members). A link to the video can be found in the “Contact CSU Union News Blog” section.

On April 13, 2017, I gave a video taped update on the status of our CSU AAUP/BOR contract. If you want to watch the video, you can click here. The video is also available on our AAUP/AAUP Facebook page.

If the exploratory discussions result in a fair agreement, the SEBAC leaders will brief the Council for its recommendation. For the process to continue beyond this summer, we will again extend our contract for another year. As this extension agreement is posted on our website, please click here to read it.

President’s Corner By CSU/AAUP President Elena Tapia

If there are changes to President Ojakian’s consolidation plan, the Council will need to be supportive of any changes that might take place in order for the process to continue. If the exploratory discussions between SEBAC and the State suggest a fair agreement comes to you, the membership, for a tentative agreement since 2015, it is likely that we will be asking the membership to vote to ratify our contract and a collective bargaining contract.

If you want to know more about these things, you should watch the video below. The video has had 281 views (out of our over 2000 members). A link to the video can be found in the “Contact CSU Union News Blog” section.

On April 13, 2017, I gave a video taped update on the status of our CSU AAUP/BOR contract. If you want to watch the video, you can click here. The video is also available on our AAUP/AAUP Facebook page.

If the exploratory discussions result in a fair agreement, the SEBAC leaders will brief the Council for its recommendation. For the process to continue beyond this summer, we will again extend our contract for another year. As this extension agreement is posted on our website, please click here to read it.